

Most beautiful German wedding photos 2015

The wedding magazine “Zankyou Weddings” posted in their online gallery “the most beautiful German wedding photos 2015”. With the exhibition of wedding photos, a competition was organized, where numerous readers of the magazine could choose their favorites. The result is firm. A total of 28 wedding photographs of genuine newlyweds were chosen among the most beautiful wedding photos in 2015. This includes the wedding photo of the bride and groom “Tatjana and Julius”, which was taken by a wedding photographer from Berlin, Grit Erlebach, from “H2N Wedding Photography”.

She accompanied the couple at their wedding as a wedding photographer in Bavaria. The photo and the photographer took a second place in the competition with 22.71% of the votes. Photo competition on an international wedding portal.

The Internet portal “Zankyou Weddings”, with more than 4.5 million users per month, is the most viewed wedding portal in Europe, Latin America and the US. The online platform offers services in more than 20 countries on three continents and in nine languages, for example the personal wedding website, the “online wedding registry”, online tools for wedding organization and a wedding magazine with topics, tips, guides and galleries about the wedding. The figures speak for themselves: More than 1 million gifts were processed via the “online wedding registry” by “Zankyou”. Over 250 000. newlyweds so far created their wedding websites with the service. On average, the online portal registers 10 million page views per month. The German Weddings Magazine Zankyou presents “the most beautiful wedding photos in 2015” in their online galleries and organized a competition for the best photo of the year. The selection of images was carried out through free voting of a broad reading public and individual perception and personal impression of the parties that have chosen their favorites.

Tatjana and Julius – winner newlyweds for the most beautiful wedding photos in 2015

Among the winners of the photo contest was the wedding photo of the bride and groom “Tatjana and Julius” from Bavaria. It shared the second place with another photo that also won 22.71% of the votes. The second place was only slightly behind the first place in percentage, which received a majority of 23.91%.

The wedding photo was created by the photographer of “H2N Wedding Photography”, who accompanied the newlyweds on their German-Russian wedding in 2015 at the chateau Höhenried on Lake Starnberg. The three-day long wedding of the newlyweds was planned by Mary Alte from the “Max Entertainment” event agency and musically accompanied by the Koda Band. Not only wedding photographs, reports and portraits resulted from this wedding, but also a wedding film, created by “H2N Wedding”. The award-winning wedding photographer behind the winner photo Behind “H2N Wedding Photography” is the wedding photographer “Grit Erlebach” from Berlin, who photographed the award-winning wedding photo of Tatiana and Julius. The professional photographer takes wedding photos since 2010 and accompanied over 200 newlyweds on their weddings throughout Germany as well as the neighboring countries Austria, Switzerland, France and Italy.

Grit Erlebach has specialized in intercultural weddings, inter alia, such as German-Russian or Moroccan-Arabic weddings. In addition to wedding photography, the wedding photographer of “H2N Wedding”, together with a professional film crew, also includes wedding films in her services.

<http://wedding-photography.info>